POLICY STATEMENT

USE OF CURLING CLUB FACILITIES

Buildings, grounds, and equipment are primarily provided for the use of shareholders, members, and associated approved organizations for recreational purposes. However, at other times the use of the facility may be available to identifiable community groups for athletic, educational, social, and/or other purposes.

The ultimate responsibility must rest with the CRCC Board of Directors, and will be governed by regulations developed to facilitate the use of the premises.

The CRCC Board of Directors will, on a regular basis, review regulations and rental charges.

Where a state of emergency exists and/or conflicts arise with the interpretation of this policy, all final decisions will be made by the CRCC Board of Directors.
